1913—Won fifth American League pennant, and again plays Giants for world's championship.

Among the Golfers

With the advance toward the title round, Mrs. Marshall McLean, one-time national champion, and Miss Marie Wagner, indoor champion, are meeting opponents every day in the women's metropolitan tennis tournament, but are still winning just as easily as in their earlier matches. On the West Side Tennis Club courts Mrs. McLean reached the semi-final round with the loss of only five games out of eighteen against Miss Elizabeth Hanch. While Miss Wagner scored even more impressively against Mrs. T. Casebeer, whom she defeated six out of seven games in each of two sets.

In a mixed foursome competition at Baltusrol Golf Club Mr. and Mrs. Nathan won the first net prize with a card of 10-3-55, and Max R. Marston and Mrs. N. P. Rogers that for low gross. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Granberry had second best net card of 10-11-51.

Members of the Consolidated Stock Exchange who play golf in their leisure moments will hold their annual handicap tournament today on Salisbury golf course at Garden City. A large number of entries have been received by the committee in charge. Among those who will play is Archie Graham, the former New Jersey champion, who now boasts the title of champion of the Consolidated Exchange. Cups have been provided for the winners in two classes, A and B. The second man in each class will also be rewarded.

Several club championships were decided over the week end. In one of these D. Smith defeated A. C. Pratt over the thirty-six-hole route at Glen Ridge by 4 up and 2 to play. Smith went around in 79 and 81 for a total of 160, while his opponent landed in scores of 82 and 81 for a total of 163. Defeated Morris P. Lewis, the nineteen-year-old player who has done such good work this season, by 4 up and 3 to play at thirty-six holes. Gardiner W. White won the championship of the Flushing Country Club, Lewis led by two holes at the end of the morning round. Ernest A. Smith won the championship of the South Orange Field Club by defeating a scholastic Van Wiclen 2 up and 1 to play at eighteen holes. Frederick E. Turrell was the previous title holder.

Britton and Shugrue
Meet in Denver Oct. 17

Local Fighter Is Guaranteed
$1,250 for Meeting Jersey
Boxer for Fifteen Rounds.

By John Pollock.

ONE of the most important matches arranged in a long time was the contest between Jack Britton and Young Shugrue of Jersey City were signed to meet in a fifteen-round bout before the State A. C. of Denver on Oct. 17. Manager Morgan is to receive a guarantee of $1,250, with the loss of 25 per cent of the gross receipts for Britton's services. Too bad this match won't be held here, as it is a bout that should be worth seeing.

Boxing is to be resumed again in Rhode Island, license having been granted to J. E. Doherty, the Providence fight promoter, to hold fifteen-round bouts at Marietta. The opening show will be held on Oct. 15, and Doherty has signed Johnny "Kid" Alberts, the crack welterweight, to meet some good fighter in the main bout.

Patsy Kline, the Newark featherweight, was matched today to meet Frankie Reynolds, one of the best fellows of Philadelphia, in a six-round bout to be held by the National A. C. of "Philly" to-morrow night. If Kline is successful in defeating Reynolds his manager will try to get on a match for him with Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion.

Dan McKelrick, manager of Joe Jeane and other fighters, is authority for the statement that Joe Woodman, who looks after the affairs of Sam Langford, the colored heavyweight, has changed his mind about taking a match to Paris for a battle with Jack Johnson. Woodman expects to take Langford to California, where he is to fight Jack Lester at Taft, Cal., in a few weeks.

Al Kubick, the husky heavyweight of Michigan, has been engaged by Jim Biff Lea and Fred Tibbott Assist in Light Practice at Princeton.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 7.—Following Saturday's game, Andrews gave the Princeton varsity only the lightest work. There was no lack of individual coaching, two new coaches being on the field, "Biff" Lea, '96, and Fred Tibbott, '09, All American halfback.

The varsity went on to the field in the early part of the afternoon for a three-quarters of an hour signal drill. Shea reported again and was placed at end. Following the signal drill, H. Baker and Emmons were given a drill in catching punts. The game with Fordham showed the great need for accuracy in this department, although there was some improvement over the week before.

Phillips and Hallin, the tackle, for a half hour practiced charging centers and blocking each other. In the mean time Blumenthal took Haviland and R. Trenkman aside and coached them in passing.

The only scrimmage was that between the scrubs won by two touchdowns, both of which were made by Boden. Boden has improved very much during the last week. His tackling and open running were the features of the practice.

OTHERS HAVE EQUALLED
AL DEMAREE'S BIG FEAT.

Al Demaree's feat of leading the National League pitchers in his first full season as a major leaguer has brought many comments upon the sensational features of the performance. The feat, however, does not establish a record. Others have accomplished the ascent to top notch honors in a single season, but few, if any, have shown keener judgment than the Giants' youngster.

Claude Hendrix, the Pirate pitcher, led the National League last season, and it was the first year that he was regularly used by Manager Clarke. "King" Cole, who is coming back to the majors as a member of the Yankees, finished his first full season with the Cubs in 1910 as league leader.

THREE NEW COACHES
RAISING PENN HOPES.

College men throughout the country are closely following the work of University of Pennsylvania. With three new coaches in charge of football, rowing and track teams, the Pennsylvania athletes are being put to a test that will determine the future policy of the university. Each of the trio of coaches has introduced a training or coaching novelty that will be either approved or discarded before the college year ends.

NEW YORK BOXERS SHINE
AGAINST PHILADELPHIANS.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 7.—New York boxers clashing with Philadelphia lads had much the better of the bouts at the National Turn Verein. William Smith Jr. of the Bronx Church House knocked out John O'Donnell of the Philadelphia Amateur Boxing Association at the start of the third round in the 125-pound division. Mike Tanser, also a 125-pounder, of the Pennant A. C., was another New Yorker to knock a Philadelphia boxer out, his victim being J. Brady, a clubmate of O'Donnell. Brady only lasted two rounds. One of the cleverest exhibitions of the evening was that of Ed Nugent of the Gaiety A. A., who stopped William Roloff of the Sheridan A. C. in the first round, also in the 125-pound division. Michael Perna of Newark stopped John Henderson of Philadelphia in the semi-final of the 165-pound division.
